Bomb Threat

Bomb threats are assumed to be real and considered a threat to the university and its operations. If an explosion occurs at any time, immediately report the explosion by calling ODUPD at 757-683-4000 (or 9-1-1 if off-campus).

What to Do If You Receive A Bomb Threat

Incident bomb threats are usually received by telephone, sometimes by note or letter. Most bomb threats are made by callers who want simply to create an atmosphere of anxiety and panic - but all calls must be taken seriously. If you receive a threat of any kind, immediately CALL 757-683-4000 (or 9-1-1 if off-campus). If possible, get a coworker to do this while you continue talking with the caller. Permit the caller to say as much as possible without interruption. THEN ask a lot of questions:

- Where is the bomb?
- When is the bomb going to go off?
- What kind of bomb is it?
- What does the bomb look like?
- What will cause the bomb to go off?

Record What You Hear

Take notes on everything said and on your observations about background noise, voice characteristics, caller's emotional state, etc. Use the Bomb Threat Checklist. Write down the caller's exact words. Also record the exact time that the call was received as well as the following information about the caller:

- The perceived sex, age, accent, and education of the caller.
- The location of the caller and any background noises that you hear.
- A description of the caller's attitude.
- A description of the caller's style of speech, speech impediments, or speech traits.

Trained emergency personnel will advise you if evacuation is necessary. Follow instructions given by emergency personnel.

What To Do If You See A Suspicious Package

If there has been a threat, and you see a package or foreign object, DO NOT touch it. From a landline phone, immediately CALL 757-683-4000 (or 9-1-1 if off-campus) to report any unusual objects or items. Read the section in this quick reference on Suspicious Packages to learn more about how to identify suspicious mail and what to do if you believe you have encountered such items.
