I. APPROVAL OF THE

traveled in the RoadTrip Nation van. Mikalah Lake, a senior majoring in women's studies, and Stephanie Rochelle, a non-traditionally aged freshman majoring in marketing/communications and an online student, related some of their experiences as they visited and interviewed ODU alumni in Virginia, Maryland, Delaware and New York.

III. STUDENT REPRESENTATIVE REPORT

Rafia Haq, student representative to the Board, provided an update on recent mental health awareness activities. A panel discussion with several SEES administrators was presented in November and was well attended by undergraduate and graduate students. Responses from students to the October mental health awareness survey show that approximately 80% of felt unusually stressed, 74% know where to go if they need help, 17% reported they had visited Counseling Services at least once, and 76% reported they would speak to someone if they felt stressed.

Mark Dove, president of the Student Activities Council, provided an overview of the Council and reported on recent events. The Council has six committees that offer programs for students throughout the year that include special events, engaging issues, films, off campus events, and concerts.
